

Being Human

May 2025

By Levi Tafari

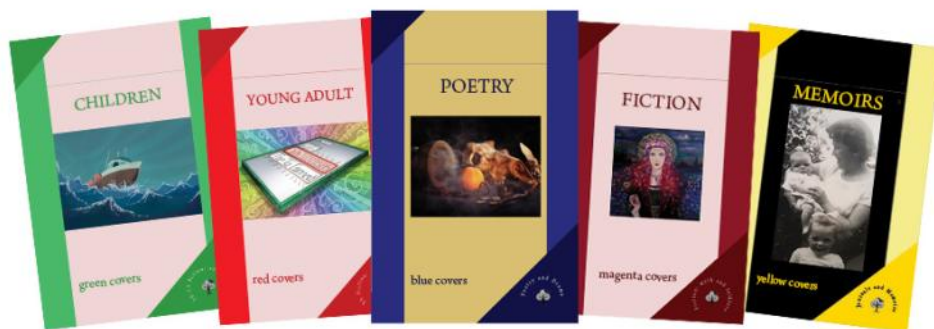

ISBN: 978-1-0687103-1-5
RRP: £9.99
Genre: Poetry
Published: 1st May 2025

I love gracing the stage. My poetry is my passion,
Creating rhymes, telling of the times in a poetic fashion.
Travelling around the world, this gives me inspiration.
My poetry is a reflection of my Rastaman vibration.

Watch Levi's film

She is a city fit to live in,
She's in a healthy place to be.
You'll never walk alone
With a dose of scouse hospitality.
She is a city that is thriving,
She's got a ticket to ride,
She is a city unique in many ways,
Liverpool on Merseyside.

The Author

*As you turn the pages it's a varied collection.
United by being human and our shared connection.*

*The human spirit, captured conscientiously.
Insight laid bare, structured so beautifully.*

*By an Urban Griot, a unity creator.
A lyrical master a thought generator*

Awarded Citizen of honour in 2022 and a Lifetime Achievement in recognition too.

*A proud Black man a must to be heard,
having also received a black penmanship award*

Poetic pictures with the colours as his words, of facts and home truths that cannot be ignored.

*Jamaican heritage, yet a scouser with pride.
Levi's voice is where lyrics reside,*

*A wordsmith, with a newscaster's intuition.
Political knowledge but not a politician.*

*In this book there are tones of humour and grace, poetry inviting us all to embrace, diversity, love and community.
The beautiful traits of where humanity should be.*

*kindness and compassion connecting our identity,
thought provoking so profound in every word you read.*

*About how to be resilient and the best that we can be,
in an evolving world where we can live as a human family.*

2006-2025